5) It is very unusual to refer to any act of H. H. the Maharaja personally in a formal order.

The matter is more one for the Sects Manual. "In drafting orders effecting change of emoluments, ~~in the absence~~ unless any special is specified, the date of the order of the final sanctioning authority shd be taken as the date with which the order has effect & such date specified in the order."

An addn to the above effect may be made in a suitable place under orders of the Chief Secy

In all cases in which the increase is outside the already sanctioned scale, H. H.'s sanction is obtained.

Ordinarily an order takes effect from the date of issue. The present proposal is to give effect from the date of H. H.'s sanction.

W 7/5 — Please see para 622 of the Leave Manual —

W 13/6 On conveying orders it is open to the administrative authorities specify the date of H.H's sanction as the date from which the increase is to be drawn in cases where it is considered desirable that effect should be given from that date.
